

Hay Vendors

Vendors on this list were verified by phone as to product availability and pricing as of October 2017, but this is by no means a complete list.

Please do not shop where rabbits are sold. If you see a rabbit for sale (i.e., not a rescue's adoption arrangement), politely tell the manager that you will buy your pet supplies elsewhere until they no longer sell rabbits. This list has not been completely vetted to exclude stores that do not sell rabbits, so shop with caution. For example, we know that Petco, Pet Smart and Tractor Supply no longer sell rabbits, but SOME Pet Supplies Plus stores may sell rabbits (while others definitely do not). Also, we don't know if any of the Agway/traditional feed-type stores sell rabbits around Easter time. If you see one of the below stores selling rabbits, in addition to mentioning your concerns to the manager, please let us know by notifying the HopLine at info@hopline.org.

Please always remember to check the quality of your hay if purchasing by the bale. Bale quality will vary throughout the year and from vendor to vendor depending on a variety of factors. If the hay is not dry, fresh smelling, free of mold and mostly green in color, then please do not purchase for your rabbit. Hay quality by the package is usually reliable, since brands like Oxbow, Sweet Meadow, KayTee, etc. adhere to their own standards before packaging for sale.

If purchasing Oxbow products at an Agway store, sign up for their frequent shopper program. For every six bags of Oxbow hay, pellets, treats and litter that you buy, a coupon is printed at the register to obtain the seventh item of that same type for free.
